G-HEAT

Glasgow Home Energy Advice Team (G-HEAT) provides independent advice on energy related issues to householders on a face to face basis, in their homes. This service is available to tenants or owner occupiers for free.

Their objective is to both help householders reduce their fuel bills and to help them make more effective use of the money they spend on fuel.

Please contact John or Lorraine at the office if you would like to arrange an appointment for a G-HEAT adviser to call at your property.
